

Comstock Publishes 3Q23 Stakeholder Perception Analysis Report

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., Oct. 02, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — Comstock Inc. (NYSE: LODE) (“Comstock” and the “Company”) today announced the completion and publication of the Company’s Q3 2023 Stakeholder Perception Analysis Report (the “Report”) by the Company’s investor relations firm, RB Milestone Group LLC (“RBMG”). The Report provides insight into the Company’s operational milestones and perceived strengths and weaknesses from the perspective of its shareholders, and includes a brief recording of Comstock’s Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Corrado De Gasperis, addressing the results.

“We have made transformational technological breakthroughs that we are commercializing to begin contributing to the global clean energy transition and accelerating decarbonization,” said De Gasperis. “We recognize the importance of understanding our capital base and ensuring that we are both delivering on our objectives and doing so clearly, effectively, and in a timely manner. We want to thank all our shareholders that participated in RBMG’s survey and look forward to hearing more from all our stakeholders as we grow together.”

RBMG compiled the results from an investor survey that stakeholders participated in during the period of August 10, 2023 (Comstock’s 2Q23 earnings call) and September 30, 2023 (the end of 3Q23). RBMG takes a proactive approach in collecting submissions from a balanced dataset, including a variety of participants, from small to larger shareholders, to prospective shareholders and strategic stakeholders in Comstock’s industry. Moreover, the various choices in each category within the Report were discussed and confirmed by Company management and RBMG, both of whom did not participate in the survey.

Comstock intends to publish these Reports compiled by RBMG on a quarterly basis to continue to provide increased transparency and grow its relationship with its current and prospective shareholders. Comstock and RBMG will open each new surveying period after each of the Company’s earnings calls and close each period at the end of the applicable quarter. Each investor survey will be available for participation in the investors section of the Company’s website during each surveying period, along with each published final Report once complete.
