

Mogo Finance Technology Passes 800,000 Member Milestone

VANCOUVER, March 21, 2019 – Mogo Finance Technology Inc. (TSX:MOGO) (NASDAQ:MOGO) (“Mogo” or the “Company”), a digital challenger to Canada’s banks, today announced it has surpassed the 800,000 member milestone as it continues to establish itself as the go-to digital finance app for the next generation of Canadians. This milestone comes after the Company announced that it added 210,000 new accounts in 2018 and, at year end, its member base stood at 756,000, a 39% increase over the prior year.

“We are bringing together a range of digital financial solutions to make it easy and engaging for consumers to get financially fit, and Canadians are increasingly responding to this proposition,” said David Feller, Mogo’s Founder and CEO. “With the near-term roll-out of several new products, as well as ongoing enhancements to current products, we will have even more ways to attract new members to our platform, bringing us closer toward our goal of one million members.”

Greg Feller, President & CFO, added: “With more than 800,000 members and growing evidence of our ability to quickly launch products and monetize them, we have built a valuable distribution platform. This is supporting our strategy to partner to bring best-in-class products to our members, which is a key strategic focus in 2019.”
