Mogo Inc. (NASDAQ:MOGO) (TSX:MOGO) (“Mogo” or the “Company”), one of Canada’s leading financial technology companies, today announced its financial and operational results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2023.

“In the first quarter, we continued to make strong progress on our plans to reengineer Mogo into a leaner and more profitable company,” said David Feller, Mogo’s Founder and CEO. “These efforts enabled us to quickly achieve positive Adjusted EBITDA while also creating a more efficient operating platform that supports our strategy to compete as the low-cost provider in our core products. While executing on these profitability initiatives, we continue to invest in both our digital wealth products and our digital payments platform, Carta Worldwide. With MogoTrade, we are increasingly confident that we have a highly differentiated and disruptive product that can be the low-cost solution in a massive market for digital trading and wealth management in Canada.”

Key Financial Highlights for Q1 2023

- Q1 revenue of $15.9 million, down 8% over the prior year, mainly reflecting the Company’s previously disclosed decision to narrow its strategic focus and exit certain sub-scale and unprofitable products.
- Q1 gross profit of $11.9 million (75% margin), up from $11.7 million (68% margin) in Q4 2022. Gross profit was down year over year from $12.3 million (71% margin) in Q1 2022, in-line with the decrease in revenue due to the exit from certain sub-scale and non-core products .
- During Q1 2023, Mogo continued to focus on cost efficiency and accelerating its path to profitability. As a result of these initiatives, total operating expenses for Q1 2023 decreased by $11.1 million, or 45%, compared to Q1 2022.

- Mogo reported a material improvement in Adjusted EBITDA², which reached $1.0 million in Q1 2023, compared with an Adjusted EBITDA loss of $5.5 million in Q1 2022.
- Adjusted net loss² decreased to ($3.9) million in Q1 2023 from ($10.8) million in Q1 2022.
- Net loss decreased to ($6.9) million in Q1 2023, compared with net loss of ($18.9) million in Q1 2022.
- Ended Q1 with cash and total investments of $60.4 million. This included combined cash and restricted cash of $25.3 million, investment portfolio of $13.3 million, and a book value of Mogo's 34% ownership in Coinsquare Ltd. ("Coinsquare") of $21.8 million.

"Our Q1 results clearly demonstrate our ability to quickly adjust our cost structure and focus our spending to improve operating profitability," said Greg Feller, President & CFO. "On the back of a 45% reduction in operating expenses year over year, we generated a meaningful increase in Adjusted EBITDA, which puts us on a path to deliver accelerating Adjusted EBITDA growth this year and reach our target annual run rate exiting 2023 of $10 to $14 million. We believe that achieving positive Adjusted EBITDA at this scale puts us in a unique strategic position in the industry and gives us the ability to continue to make investments in our long-term growth products like MogoTrade and our Digital Payments platform Carta Worldwide, that will help position us for accelerating revenue growth in 2024 and beyond."
